DETAILED ACTION

1. This office action is in reply to an amendment filed on January 10, 2006.
All the previous claims 1-23 are canceled. And new claims 25-38 are added.
Therefore claims 25-38 are pending and are examined.

Response to Arguments

2. Applicant's arguments with respect to the claims 25-38 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

Art Unit: 2132

4. Claims 25-36 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) and 102 (a) as being anticipated by Basch et al. (hereinafter referred as Basch) (U.S. Patent Number: 6,119,103).
5. As per claim 25-36 Basch discloses a method of assessing a financial fraud risk [title, abstract] within a distributed client [Abstract, account issuer/sink]/server system [column 6, lines 55, "FRPS 100"], said method comprising:
- Receiving first and second financial transactions from transactional information source at a central computer system; [Abstract] ("A computer-implemented method for predicting financial risk, which includes receiving first transaction data pertaining to transactions performed on a first financial account. The first financial account represents a financial account issued to a given account holder by a first account issuer. The method further includes receiving second transaction data pertaining to transaction performed on a second financial account different from the first financial account")
- Generating first features for said first financial transaction at said central computer system;[Abstract, "scoring the first transaction"]
  - Generating second features for said second financial transaction at said central computer system;[Abstract, "scoring the second transaction"]
  - Determining feature changes between said first features and said second features at said central computer system; [ Abstract]

Art Unit: 2132

(Determining whether or not the score is below a predefined financial risk threshold meets the limitation of determining feature changes between said first features and said second features]

- Encrypting said features changes at said central computer system; [column 8, lines 40-51 and ] (The control parameters may include, for example, BIN lists (i.e., lists of account number ranges from participating account issuers), scoring options, report options, encryption options, and the like. The control parameters, which may be received from account issuers via FRPS management module 112, are then employed by FRPS 100 to process the input data and properly format and encrypt the alerts and scores to the various data sinks (i.e., the receiver of the generated credit scores and/or credit alerts).

- Transmitting said encrypted feature changes from said central computer system to a client computer System [column 8, lines 39-51 and column 9, lines 44-49, column 9, lines 38-49; column 9, lines 62- column 10, line 2] (FRPS system met the central computer system and various data sinks or transaction authorization system or account issuers or other data customers shown on figure 1 and as an example indicated on column 9, line 47-48 met the client computer system];

- Receiving a local, current financial transaction at a client computer system; [Column 9, lines 46-48] (Transaction authorization system making a transaction indicated on column 9, lines 46-48 meets the limitation of receiving a local, current financial transaction at the client/authorization computer)

Art Unit: 2132

- Encrypting said current transaction at said client computer system; generating local features from said encrypted current transaction at said client computer system; [Column 10, lines 49-58]
- Comparing said local features to said received features changes at said client computer system; scoring the result of said comparing to produce a fraud risk value associated with said local, current financial transaction, whereby the risk associated with said current transaction is assessed in a distributed manner.[Column 9, 44-61]

Conclusion

6. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
